

NEW BABY

Parents: Diego (Australian Citizen) · Yuri (Japanese Citizen) Due: July 2026 · Japan

■■ Step 1 -- Japanese Registration

Must be completed within 14 days of birth

#	Task	Notes
1	Register birth at local ward office (■■)	Yuri handles as Japanese citizen
2	Have Diego listed as father on the birth register	Yuri declares paternity at ward office -- critical step
3	Obtain Japanese birth certificate	Get apostilled + certified English translation
4	Apply for Japanese passport for baby	Optional but useful for travel

■■ Step 2 -- Australian Citizenship by Descent

Form 119 -- lodge within 3 months of birth (strongly recommended)

#	Task	Notes
5	Book appointment at Australian Embassy Tokyo	Book early -- appointments fill fast
6	Prepare statutory declaration	Signed by both Diego + Yuri confirming paternity
7	Submit Form 119 + all supporting documents	Processing: 4-8 weeks
8	Apply for Australian passport for baby	At same embassy appointment -- issued ~4-6 weeks
9	Baby holds dual AU + JP citizenship until age 22	Japan requires a choice at age 22

■ Step 3 -- Returning to Australia

#	Task	Notes
10	Baby travels on Australian passport	No visa required -- Australian citizen
11	Confirm Yuri's partner visa is valid for re-entry	Check before leaving Japan
12	Register baby with Medicare	Any Medicare centre on arrival
13	Apply for Family Tax Benefit A + B via Centrelink	Must apply within 52 weeks of birth

■ Documents Needed for Australian Embassy

- Diego's Australian passport + citizenship certificate
- Yuri's Japanese passport
- Japanese birth register showing Diego as father ← key paternity evidence
- Statutory declaration signed by both Diego + Yuri confirming paternity
- Japanese birth certificate (apostilled + certified English translation)
- Evidence Diego lived in Australia (tax returns, utility bills, etc.)
- Baby passport photos -- white background, standard size

■■ Key Deadlines

Deadline	Action
Within 14 days of birth	Japanese birth registration at ward office
Within 3 months of birth	Lodge Australian citizenship by descent (Form 119)
At age 22	Baby must choose Australian or Japanese citizenship

■ Key Contact

Australian Embassy Tokyo Website: japan.embassy.gov.au Phone: +81 3 5232 4111

